Dear Friends,

Up and coming.

As the Second Vatican Council was ending, the Council Fathers expressed their desire to (now) Pope St. Paul VI that there be a way to continue the collegial experience that the Council exemplified, a way to be in communion with and assistance to the Roman Pontiff in the leadership of the Church. In response, on September 15, 1965 the Pope established the Synod of Bishops, a permanent body to enshrine the desire of the Council Father. The word synod comes from two Greek words meaning the “way” “together,” basically an assembly, a people walking together on the road of life.

Since its inception, there have been 19 Synods covering such topics as catechesis (teaching), family life, the ministerial priesthood, evangelization and others. But the Synod has always been a meeting of the bishops from various parts of the world, sometimes with participation of laity with a particular expertise in the subject at hand.

As a way to engage the whole Church, and as an expression of the Holy Spirit’s presence in the whole Church, Pope Francis desires to expand that participation. For the Pope, it is the whole Church that walks together, not just the bishops. And so he initiated a two year process which has been called the “Synod on Synodality,” a way to rediscover this concept of the whole Church walking together, listening to the voice of the Holy Spirit, as the whole Church seeks to follow the invitation of Christ, “Come, follow me.” For a deeper understanding of this concept, I invite you to view Cardinal Tobin’s video introduction. It can be found at:

<https://youtu.be/ciUq9YmL8CY>

The first phase of this two year process might be called the “listening,” the Church listening to itself, on the local level. This will begin with each parish holding listening sessions where parishioners will be invited to speak up and speak out on their concerns for and about the Church, what challenges them, what confronts them, what comforts them. Any and all concerns are welcomed to be aired and shared. It will be accomplished through a process and, hopefully, will be able to stay focused, but not controlled. In other words it won’t be a “free for all,” but a process to allow real issues to rise to the surface. Each parish will then submit a summary report to the Archdiocese which will collate them and present them to the United States Conference of Bishops which will do the same so that a report from the Church in the United States, as well as the rest of the Catholic world, can be presented when the second phase of the Synod opens in Rome in the fall of 2023.

2 Along with all the parishes of the Archdiocese, Mount

Carmel will offer listening sessions open to the whole parish. There will be two to accommodate your schedules. The first will be on Sunday, February 6th, immediately after the 12:30PM Mass, from 1:30PM-3:00PM in the Parish Center. The second will be on Thursday evening, February 10th, from 7:00PM-8:30PM, also in the Parish Center. More information will follow in the next few weeks. In addition, special sessions will be offered to some of the ministries in the parish, in order to get the widest feedback possible. Please come, and make your voice heard.

Up and coming—2

In the late spring of 2020, 4 Auxiliary Bishops were ordained to assist Cardinal Tobin in the pastoral leadership of the Archdiocese. Each of those Bishops was assigned one of the regions (counties) of the Archdiocese in order to be able to concentrate and focus his attention. Bishop Michael Saporito, at the time, pastor of St. Helen's in Westfield (where Fr. Frank served at one time), was appointed Episcopal Vicar of Bergen County, with residence on the grounds of St. Luke's in Ho-Ho-Kus.

One of the responsibilities of the Episcopal Vicar is to make a pastoral visit to each parish in his region (county). Although he has celebrated Mass here before (during Advent), Bishop Saporito will make an "official" visit to Mount Carmel on February 1st and 2nd. He will be meeting with the priests, selected members of the staff and the advisory councils (pastor and finance) and with the parish at large. That gathering for all who wish to attend is scheduled for Wednesday evening, February 2nd at 7:00 PM in the Parish Center. More information on the exact format of that gathering will follow.

Up and coming—3

Next weekend has been initiated by Pope Francis as the Sunday of the Word of God. It was inaugurated on September 30, 2019, the Feast of St. Jerome, who translated most of the Bible into Latin and who famously said, "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ." The opening words of the document of inauguration, Aperuit illis, come from the Gospel of Luke, on the road to Emmaus, when we are told "He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures" (Luke 24:45). The weekend celebrations are meant to highlight the proclamation of the Word of God and the normative value it should have in the life of every Catholic as well as "the unbreakable bond between Sacred Scripture and the Eucharist." The added elements in our Sunday celebrations next weekend are meant to remind us of that and to encourage greater reading of, and familiarity with, God's Word, the Bible.

God Bless,
Fr. Ron

STEWARDSHIP

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." In today's 2nd Reading, St. Paul reminds us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. The blessings may be different, but the reason is always the same—to continue His work on earth, building up His kingdom. How has God blessed you? Are you using His gifts to accomplish His works? Or your own?

God bless all who build the kingdom through the generous sharing of their material blessings.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Ridgewood parish will be conferring the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) Rite of Acceptance today, January 16, 2022 at the 11:00AM Mass. Our pastor, Msgr. Ron, will be the minister of the sacraments.

The Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens marks the passage from the precatechumenate or inquirer into the catechumenate period. Basically, it is the process when a non-baptized person inquiring about becoming a Catholic is formally accepted into the RCIA journey of faith. The inquirer goes through informal interactions with the RCIA team to determine the inquirer's intentions and commitment to know and follow Jesus Christ. Once the inquirer is accepted, then the inquirer becomes a catechumen. The timeframe for the catechumen to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist depends on the person's manifestation of his or her faith journey. The Archdiocese of Newark requires one full liturgical year leading up to the Easter Vigil. It is at the Easter Vigil that the celebrant, a bishop or a delegated priest, will confer the sacraments on the catechumen.

The inquirer who is starting the RCIA journey of faith is Stella Song. With the Holy Spirit's guidance and her openness to accept Christ in her life, Stella hopefully will receive the sacraments at the Easter Vigil in 2023. Her family and friends are proud of her decision and will be praying for her.

Our entire parish family is invited to offer prayers for Stella to give her the strength, understanding, and commitment as she embarks on this journey to become a lifetime disciple of Jesus Christ.

1. Isaiah 62:1-5
 The oracles of the last chapters of the Book of Isaiah celebrate the restored relationship between God and His people. Once led astray by the lure of power and self-reliance, the years of exile give a new wisdom about the privilege of serving God. Israel now enjoys a restored relationship, imaged by both royal status (glorious crown, royal diadem) and the marriage relationship. In this, especially, the intimate bond between God and His people is highlighted by new names, “My delight” and “Espoused.” And this new transformation will not only benefit Israel, but all the nations of the world.
2. 1 Corinthians 12:4-11
 Paul reminds the Corinthians that because of their faith in Jesus, they are no longer just individuals, they are a community of the beloved, inspired and enlivened by the very Spirit of Jesus, Himself. As a result, they are intended to cooperate with one another so that their Spirit-endowed gifts would be a source of strength and growth for the community and of edification for the world as they give witness to God’s love and power working in and through them. While there may be many gifts, they all come from the same source, the Spirit.
3. John 2:1-11
 The Epiphany, the Baptism of the Lord and the Wedding Feast at Cana are all linked as part of the manifestation theology of the Gospels. Today’s uniquely Johanne account has been called “replacement theology.” Jesus gets involved in what could have become an embarrassing situation at the behest of His mother. (a clue that she knows something about His power that others, including His disciples, do not.) Jesus’ wine replaces the water intended for purification under the old law. And the amount far exceeds what would have been needed at the wedding. John is beginning the series of seven signs in which Jesus is announced as the true Messiah and the true and only source of salvation.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. What gifts do you have to bring to the community? Do you value both their God-given origin and their religious purpose?
2. The disciples came to believe after the “first sign.” What signs of God’s actions in your life have you recognized? Are there any signs you think you may have missed?
3. Have you experienced moments where God’s plan for you turned out to be better than anything you might have asked or imagined?
