Dear Friends,

As you can see from the front cover of today's bulletin, Catholic Schools Week begins today. This is the week throughout the nation when we celebrate the history of, and continuing presence of the Catholic school as part of the American Catholic parish experience. There are a host of activities happening at our school, the Academy of Our Lady, which we support along with St. Catharine's. At the conclusion of all the masses this weekend, both here and at St. Catharine's, a student from the Academy, from his/her particular parish, will speak of their experience at the Academy. I know you will be impressed.

Many things have changed in and about the Catholic school over the decades, but one thing remains—the Catholic school is still the place where God and faith come first. This is true not only in religion as a classroom subject, but also in the way our faith permeates the whole atmosphere of the school. It starts at the very beginning of the day, when the school assembles in the church for prayer and carries through every day, most especially in the relationships that are developed, relationships based on Christ's commandment to "love one another as I have loved you." It is the atmosphere of faith that permeates the school that makes it special. To that end, I invite families and parents, especially parents with children of elementary school age, to attend one of the two Open Houses to be held at the school. The first is on Sunday, 1/29, from 11:00AM to 1:00PM. The second is on Wednesday, 2/1, from 10:00AM to 12:00 Noon. Please come and experience the vitality of Catholic education.

And still speaking of the school, tickets for the Calendar Raffle will be available at the doors of the church following this Sunday's 9:30AM mass and at all masses the weekend of February, Feb. 25th and 26th. You can find information on the Raffle and its prizes elsewhere in this bulletin but basically tickets are drawn every day so there are multiple chances to win on the same ticket. I've actually won twice over the last three years. (Not really a great track record. Maybe this year I could win twice in one year. But I wouldn't bet on it). The important thing is that it's a great way to support the continued presence of this vital apostolate—the apostolate of Catholic education and formation.

Next weekend is Pledge Weekend for the 2023 Annual Appeal for the Archdiocese of Newark. On the Homepage of the website you will find the message from Cardinal Tobin in reference to the Appeal and the work of the Church of Newark that's funded by the Appeal. I will have more to say about it in next week's bulletin. But I wanted to bring something to your attention that might help you decide whether or not to participate. St. Lucy's parish in Jersey City closed over 40 years ago. When Catholic Charities first got involved with ministering to the homeless, the Archdiocese leased the premises to Catholic Charities for a homeless shelter for $1.00 a year. In fact,

Catholic Charities eventually opened 3 shelters on the premises, a general shelter for walk-in homeless in the school, a shelter for men with AIDS in the former rectory and Transitional Housing units for those transitioning from homeless to their own apartments. Along with the shelters, Catholic Charities offers a variety of services including job training and job search, education and mental-health/addiction programs and SSI and unemployment counselling. About five years ago, a developer approached the Archdiocese about the sale of the land which sits in downtown Jersey City. Rather than just telling Catholic Charities to find another site, the Archdiocese has been working with Catholic Charities, the developer, and the City of Jersey City for the construction of a new shelter for those same populations, passing all the proceeds of the sale to Catholic Charities. It could have taken those funds for itself, since it is the owner of the property, but it didn't. This new shelter is about to open in the next two months or so. I pass along this information to you as a sign that the Archdiocese is faithful when it comes to the promise that all the funds raised through the Annual Appeal are used exclusively for their intended purposes. More next week.

God bless,
Fr. Ron

STEWARDSHIP

"Whoever boasts, should boast in the Lord." Paul's words to the Corinthians in today's 2nd Reading remind us that all is gift from God; nothing is earned. The Christian Steward knows this and offers, in thanksgiving, gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure. What do you offer to God in acknowledgement of the goodness you have been shown? Anything?

The parish Stewardship of Treasure in last week's in-pew collection was $16,411. God bless your generous giving in building The Lord's Kingdom among us. Please consider using electronic giving—WeShare—as the "tool" through which you support the work of the parish and the building of the Kingdom. It helps.

The final figure for the Christmas collection was $197,713.

Please prayerfully consider joining fellow parishioners by supporting Our Lady of Mt Carmel through a recurring online gift.

Look for the WeShare link on our homepage or call 877.316.0260

ARCHDIOCESE OF NEWARK

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY LITURGIES to be celebrated at

The Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart

We are excited to announce that we are once again preparing the annual tradition of honoring those couples in our Archdiocese who will be celebrating five, twenty-five and fifty years of valid marriage for the Catholic faithful in the year 2023!

These anniversary liturgies will be held in the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark as follows below. The 50th Anniversary Mass will be celebrated by Cardinal Joseph Tobin. The 5th and 25th Anniversary Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Gregory Studerus.

April 16, 2023 3:00PM 50 Years

Deadline to Register—April 7, 2023

May 7, 2023 3:00PM 5 & 25 Years

Deadline to Register—April 26, 2023

It is our desire that every couple in the Archdiocese deserving of such recognition be present at the appropriate liturgy. The presence of these couples will be a tender witness to the strength and stability of Christian marriage in today's society.

Note: Since we were unable to host these celebrations in 2020 and 2021, and many families are still playing 'catch-up' with their celebrations, any couple who would have celebrated their Silver or Gold Anniversary in those years may still join us. (Certificates will read "Silver" or "Gold," not 26, 51, etc.)

To register, contact Patti Roche

ACADEMY OF OUR LADY

A Message from Interim Principal, Katharine Clemente

Because I have been writing weekly letters to the school community this year, I find it a bit difficult to write with nuance for this year's Catholic Schools Week article. For those who do not know, National Catholic Schools Week is held every year as a way to highlight and celebrate our pillars of faith, excellence, and service. Suffice to say that it has been a different kind of year for me. I have seen the school building, our students, faculty, families, and parish community from all different angles and through a very different lens. And perhaps that's the theme of this year's article: Perspective. And not forgetting that others have perspective too. I have been a student and the relative of students at Academy of Our Lady. I have been a parishioner, lector, member of the liturgy committee and parish council for St. Catharine's church. I have been a faculty member, spring musical director, and now interim principal. So, I like to think I have quite a wide perspective when it comes to viewing our parish and school communities. However, my job now is also to remember what the view was like from each of those positions and to act with empathy and understanding. I think this is what Jesus challenges us to do every day. Act with empathy and understanding, with the knowledge that others have had different experiences and bring those lessons and emotions along with them. Different perspectives are valuable, if also challenging, but we have to remember that Jesus has the widest perspective of all and that His plan for us is happiness. Jesus has seen us in all of our various roles in life, and perhaps the new perspective that seems challenging at first, is really His way of reminding us to be humble, to be learners, to be helpers, because at some point that challenging perspective was once our own. At Academy of Our Lady, we offer a place where children learn to view others as Jesus views them. We offer a place where children learn to view themselves as Jesus views them, and sometimes that is the greatest gift. I invite you to experience the world through our perspective this week.

Thank you and God bless.

1. Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13

Zephaniah and King Josiah prompted a religious reform in Judah six centuries before the birth of Jesus. At the heart of their reforms, in liturgy and morality, was a growing spirituality of humble acquiescence to God's will. Service to God is grounded in justice and humility. Like sheep grazing peacefully, Israel will find security in being committed to God's truth, justice and will.

2. 1 Corinthians 1:26-31

Belonging to Christ is an honor and a glory that supersedes human attributes. And every good gift and grace that the believer possesses is not self-cultivated but is the gift of God in Christ. Paul corrects the pride of some in the community who think otherwise. If anyone is to boast, their boasting should be about the Lord and His goodness to them.

3. Matthew 5:1-12

When a rabbi wanted to impart a lesson of great importance, he sat down. Matthew indicates the importance of this moment and teaching in the opening lines of today's excerpt. Here is a teaching of great importance. That Matthew places it at the beginning of Jesus' public teachings indicates the elemental nature of the teaching in living Jesus' life. Jesus uses these "blessings" to instill hope in the lives of people who have little to hope for. There will be a future that will be a reversal of their present hopelessness.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. In what ways do the Beatitudes call me to think in terms of gospel paradoxes—strength in weakness, wisdom in foolishness, etc? Do I see these paradoxes in my life?
2. The Beatitudes represent a lifetime process of transformation. Do I see in myself, and in society, advancement in holiness as much as advancement in technology?
3. Which Beatitude speaks most forcefully to you at this time in your life?
