Dear Friends,

-On things material.

As I have for the last two weeks, I begin with an up-date on the Annual Appeal. As of today, the total pledged is $136,525 from 276 donors, which means the parish is less than $900 from our stretch goal. That's fantastic and well ahead of last year. Thank you to all who have committed to the support of the many ministries supported by the Appeal. But you may recall that our goal was not so much in the dollars but in the number of donors. The Appeal ended last year with 420 donors and I was hoping we could get that to 500. So we have a long way to go. Why should I be a donor (it's a rhetorical question, because I already made and paid my own personal pledge)? First, because it is a good cause. The Appeal supports so many of the good things the Church does. Works like Catholic Charities, especially with its homeless shelters. And Campus Ministry, putting priests on the campuses of the secular colleges in our State, places like Newark Rutgers, Montclair State, Keane and Stevens in Hoboken. And the hospitals in the Archdiocese, putting priest chaplains to serve the sick in all the hospitals in the Archdiocese, including our own Valley Hospital along with Hackensack and Englewood. And the recruitment of future priests, the program headed by Fr. Geno. And a host of others. So many good works. So much needed to fund them. Please join those who have already pledged and let's make Mount Carmel a participant in all of these good works. Make a pledge today. Pledge envelopes are available in the rectory or you can go to the homepage of our website, scroll down the left hand side to the link for 2022 ANNUAL APPEAL. Be sure to select Mount Carmel-Ridgewood so the parish will get the credit for the gift. More about that next week.

-On things spiritual.

Today is the 3rd Sunday of Lent. Beginning today, as part of the process we call the RCIA, the Church celebrates the Scrutinies. The Scrutinies are a part of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the RCIA. This is the process by which adults and children of catechetical age are brought into the Church. I say a process because it involves both instruction and formation. Over the course of these past many months, eight men and women have been journeying toward baptism (for those unbaptized), full communion (for those baptized in another Christian ecclesial community), or full initiation (baptized Catholic who have not completed their sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist)). On the weekend of the first Sunday of Lent, all were officially accepted into the final stages of this process. Beginning today, and continuing the next two weeks, they will take part in liturgical rites called the Scrutinies. These are rites when they will be asked to engage in self-searching—to uncover, then heal, all that is weak, defective or sinful, and to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright, strong and good. In prayer, we will ask God to deliver them from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ, Who is the Way and the truth and the Life. These Rites will be celebrated at the 11:00 Mass today, and for the following two Sundays. The readings for those masses will be from the A cycle, relating the familiar stories of the woman at the well, the man born blind and the raising of Lazarus, to remind us that Jesus gives us the water of life, gives us sight in our blindness and raises us from the death of sin.

Pray for them, and if you attend any of these Masses, use the occasion to do some self-searching yourself, to see if your life is going in the right direction.

For all the other masses, the readings continue using Cycle C, the Gospel of Luke.

Are you ready to meet God? This seems to be the question Jesus puts to his hearers in today's Gospel. Some people in the crowd relate to him the rumors that Pilate had executed some Galileans and mixed their blood with the blood of the Temple sacrifices. Jesus retorts with his own rumor—the tragic death of those on whom a tower had fallen. In both cases Jesus doesn't comment on the widely held belief that these tragedies occurred because these people were sinners. But he challenges his hearers to examine if they would be ready for their own deaths.

This Gospel reminds us that life is uncertain. And we encounter tragedies every day in and through the media: hurricanes, floods, volcanoes, tornadoes, school shootings, as well as a host of personal tragedies, sickness, death, addictions, etc. We have just come through, but are not yet out of, one of the most unexpected tragedies we've ever faced as a world—a pandemic and we are experiencing another great tragedy at this very moment—the horrific scenes of war in Ukraine. Some realities can be avoided (war) and some cannot (hurricanes, floods, pandemics) but how unprepared we can be for either. This Gospel is a call to own the uncertainty of life and to be prepared, by our repentance, to meet God in death.

Jesus closes with the parable of the fig tree. Normally, a new plant would be expected to produce fruit within two years and then to produce a harvest twice a year. The tree in the parable is long past due to show that it is worth the effort. But the gardener asks for one last year. If we were that tree, we should be happy for the reprieve, one last opportunity to bear the fruit that is within us. And we would have help because the one doing the nourishing and cultivating is no one less than Jesus himself. This gracious opportunity is ours for the taking.

As we begin this third week of Lent, Scripture invites us to ask ourselves if we have yet responded to the Lord's call to repent, to turn away from sin and produce fruit for the Kingdom. Only you can answer that. If not, Jesus, the great gardener waits to help us, but... time may be running out.

God Bless,
Fr. Ron

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

Part of the RCIA journey of faith is to participate in the Scrutinies. These are RCIA steps that are intended to scrutinize a catechumen's heart and mind to develop and deepen a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. At each Scrutiny, the catechumen is invited and challenged to express publicly and privately where he or she is in her journey of faith to become a Catholic.

The Scrutinies are celebrated on the Third, Fourth, and Fifth Sundays of Lent. The readings are from Liturgical Year A and on the Gospel of John.

At OLMC, the Scrutinies will be celebrated at the 11:00AM Mass. The First Scrutiny is on March 20th. The Gospel reading is about Jesus encountering the Samaritan woman at the well. The Second Scrutiny is on March 27th. The Gospel reading is about Jesus healing the blind man at the Pool of Siloam. The Third Scrutiny is on April 3rd. The Gospel reading is about Jesus bringing Lazarus back from the dead.

Gabriela Blacido is the candidate who will participate in these Scrutinies to help prepare her on a journey to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist in the Easter Vigil. The parish is invited to pray for her.

1. Exodus 3:1-8, 13-15

In this excerpt, God makes Himself known to His chosen servant, Moses. He reveals Himself as (1) the God of Moses' ancestors, Who (2) will deliver their descendants (the Hebrews) from slavery, through (3) Moses, who will be His instrument. Though Moses acknowledges his unworthiness, God, Himself, will be with him as his strength. In response to Moses' question about His identity, God responds with something of an enigma. "He causes to be what comes to be", that the people may know when they are delivered; it is this God Who delivers them.

2. 1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12

In attempting to encourage the community to maintain its focus on Christ, Paul often cites examples from Israelite history of that community's failure to maintain fidelity to their Covenant with Yahweh. In today's excerpt, Paul reminds the Corinthians of the miracles Yahweh did for His people, the guidance of the cloud, the passage through the Red Sea, the manna and the water. Yet still they were unfaithful. Christians should learn from them, and maintain their focus on living the life of Christ.

3. Luke 13:1-9

Though neither of these two incidents is attested to by the other Evangelists, Luke cites them as a warning from Jesus that the time for repentance is short and unpredictable. These incidents should occasion a time for personal reflection and personal repentance before it is too late. In the parable of the fig tree, the message is equally clear—we are in that year of grace, that last year given to us to respond to God, and to bear the fruit of faithful commitment and service.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. In announcing Himself as the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, God stirs the memory of Moses to the great things done for them. What things, great or small, has God done for you, especially during the worst of the pandemic days?
2. How do you understand God's name as revealed to Moses?
3. This Lent, what can you do in your spiritual life that will bear fruit for the Kingdom?
