Dear Friends,

For many years now, with some variation due to changing circumstances, usually due to the pandemic, I have repeated my Palm Sunday column. It's easy to forget why we celebrate Holy Week the way we do and the column serves as a reminder and teaching tool about the importance of what happens this week. As happens so often, the schools are closed this week and the challenge is that many will forget that for all of us who call ourselves Christians, this is the holiest week on the calendar. And I hope for those who are away, that they may, in some way, remember what this week means. But for those of us who are around, I encourage everyone to see the significance of these days and observe them accordingly.

With Palm Sunday, the Church begins the remembrance of Jesus' last days on earth. Of special importance are the days of the Easter Triduum, Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday/the Easter Vigil. On these days, the Church looks at the events which have become the center of our salvation.

The single Mass on Holy Thursday, the Mass of the Lord's Supper, remembers the institution of the Eucharist, the source and summit of the Church's life of grace. It is from the Eucharist that all of us draw our spiritual strength. It is from the Eucharist that we are fed with the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, Himself, as food for the journey. The Eucharist is the pledge of the Pascal Feast of Heaven. It is especially at this Mass of the Lord's Supper that the Church points to the Lord's sacrifice for us, His Body, broken for us, His Blood poured out for us and the Church encourages the reception of Holy Communion under both forms, the consecrated host and the consecrated wine. You may have heard or read that the reception from the cup has been restored, not only for this Mass but for every Mass beginning on Holy Thursday. While we are not yet ready to restore COMMUNION UNDER BOTH FORMS at all Masses, Communion from the cup will be offered at The Mass of the Lord's Supper. As in the past, it has always been an option and each individual communicant is free to make his or her own decision. In addition, at this celebration of the Lord's Supper we remember the institution of the ministerial priesthood, a priesthood by which Jesus has chosen to continue His own priestly presence through the ages. Most especially, the ministerial priesthood is entrusted with the sacramental ministry through which grace (the divine life) is offered to the Church from the hands of Christ, Himself. On Monday evening, the priests of the Archdiocese will gather around their Bishop and renew the promises of service to the people of God that they made at their ordination. On Thursday, during this Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper, your priests will repeat that promise in front of the whole community gathered as Mount Carmel. Pray for us, that we may always remain faithful to that promise. Also at this Supper, we remember the Lord's example of charity and service, in the washing of the feet, a call which Christ speaks to the whole Church, also as a sign of His continued presence in the Church, so that the Church may be a sign of His presence in the world. Honoring the Sacrament of Christ's own Body and Blood, the Holy Thursday celebration concludes with the Eucharistic Procession to the daily Mass chapel where the faithful may remain/come for private prayer and adoration until the church closes at midnight.

On Good Friday, the Church remembers the death of her Lord. The principle worship service is not a Mass but is officially called the Celebration of the Lord's Passion. It has three principle parts: (1) the Liturgy of the Word, especially the Passion, which recounts the Lord's suffering and death, (2) the Veneration of the Cross, in which each of us are invited to venerate the Cross as the instrument of our salvation, and (3) the Communion Service, in which Holy Communion, consecrated at the Mass of the Lord's Supper the previous evening, is distributed to the faithful. Good Friday is the most solemn day on the Church's calendar. The faithful should make every effort to celebrate it as such. I have mentioned before that in this one we could learn from our brothers and sisters of Jewish or Moslem adherence. It would be considered a rarity that they would not celebrate their "high holy days," Yom Kippur or Ramadan. And yet, we Catholics have become so cavalier about the way we commemorate Good Friday, our high holy day. We think nothing of scheduling ball games and practices (coaches, please note) or going to work. I wonder how many will spend Good Friday on a beach somewhere? What kind of a message are we giving to our children and our world? Please try to reverse that, even if it means taking a personal day from work, to witness to your co-workers and your family and your neighbors that Jesus' sacrifice on the cross means something to you. And if you take off, honor the day by worshipping with us and by leaving household chores, shopping, the lawn and garden, etc., to another day.

The Easter Vigil is often called the "mother of all vigils," because it was an ancient custom of early Christians to stay up on the eve of Easter to wait, with the whole Church, for the Resurrection of the Lord. It was a time to remember, through the many readings, the history of salvation, culminating in that final act of God on our behalf, the Resurrection. In addition, all those who wished to join the community were baptized at this Vigil. It is a beautiful celebration of hope and joy. Join us for this special Vigil Mass that begins at 8:00PM Saturday evening. At the Vigil those who are to be baptized into the Christian faith and the Catholic Church and with whom we have shared a journey these weeks of Lent, especially if you attended the weekly 11:00 Mass, will join our Eucharistic community for the first time. This year, Stella Song will join this local Catholic community when she is baptized. It would be a wonderful thing if, as a parish, a large part of our community were there to welcome her. I know Mass will take a little longer than usual, but when you think of the fact that Stella has now found Christ, what a wonderful sign to her that our community truly appreciates this decision for the faith. And what a continuing encouragement to us to rekindle the faith that brought Stella to this moment. Please come. You might be inspired to speak an invitation to the faith to someone who is searching for God in their lives.

The full schedule of these masses and services appears on the cover of this bulletin and on the website.

How has your Lent been? If it has gone well, cap it off by your participation in the liturgies of these special days. If it has not gone well, a good Holy Week can change that around. Unlike Christmas, which is a one-day event, Easter comes at the end of a holy week during which the Lord can touch our lives in remembering the love He poured out on us in the holiest of sacrifices.

And speaking of that love, why not experience it in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Penance, confession. It is in this Sacrament that the Lord is most merciful. Experience that mercy at our Parish Penance Service (with the opportunity for individual confession) on Tuesday evening, 4/4 at 7:30PM or individual confessions on Wednesday evening, 4/5 from 7:00PM to 9:00PM. No confessions will be heard after Wednesday evening. No confessions will be heard on Monday evening, 4/3, because of the Chrism Mass or on Easter Monday, 4/10.

One last thing. I call your attention to the schedule of Masses for Easter Sunday. You will notice three masses celebrated in the auditorium, at 9:30AM, 11:00AM and 12:30PM. With what we hope will be the return to large crowds, we offer these extra masses to alleviate overcrowding in the church. The Masses in the auditorium will have full ministries and full musical programs and you will hardly know that you are in an auditorium it will be so well decorated. So please, if you get to the church and it is already crowded, you will find a warm celebration in the auditorium.

May Holy Week be, for each one of us a time of renewal in faith, deepening in hope and growth in charity by the way we walk with the Lord through these saving mysteries.

God Bless,
Fr. Ron

STEWARDSHIP

"Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave." In today's 2nd Reading, Paul reminds us that Jesus puts himself at the service of the Father and, in doing so, pours himself out for his brothers and sisters. The Christian Steward seeks to live his/her life in imitation of the Master by using God's gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure to accomplish the will of the Father and to serve his/her brothers and sisters. How do you follow Jesus' example of "taking the form of a slave?"

The parish Stewardship of Treasure for the in-pew collection last week was $18,224. Once again, parishioners are encouraged to use electronic giving, WE SHARE, as the most convenient way of supporting the parish and it helps the parish to properly budget its resources. God bless all who offer their gifts to accomplish the will of the Father.

NO 6:30PM MASS ON EASTER SUNDAY

1. Isaiah 50:4-7

Throughout his long career, Isaiah's message was one of complete commitment to God's service. It was a message, however, that found few listeners, either in the royal house or among the people themselves. Now, after years of deprivation and exile, the people have been awakened to an appreciation of the word that comes from God and gives life. The Servant, representing the ideal Israel, claims no personal honor, only that which comes from fidelity to the word of God and dedication to the mission on which the Servant is sent, to speak on God's behalf, even in the face of rejection and hostility. While Israel came to see the nation as that servant, the Christian church identifies the Servant as Jesus.

2. Philippians 2:6-11

Through our faith and in our baptism, Christ has taken over our lives. By doing so, He has given us the power to imitate Him. In what? Because Christ decided not to display His divine glory, but to live and die in humble obedience to the Father, and because He has given us the power to imitate Him, He calls us to enter into that same obedience, and so enter into glory with Him.

3. Matthew 26:14—27:66.

The passion narrative forms the core of all four Gospels, expressing the mystery of salvation, Christ's suffering, death and, ultimately, Resurrection. But each Gospel writer has shaped the narrative to include and express his own particular theological perspective. The community for which Matthew writes his Gospel is comprised of converts from Judaism and there is a resulting ongoing conflict between them and the synagogue leadership. Matthew's Gospel reflects this antagonism as he repeatedly ascribes responsibility for Jesus' death to the whole nation. Another emphasis is how strongly Matthew enhances Jesus' stature as Son of God and His death as the fulfillment of what was promised in the Scripture, a death which ushers in a new age.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. Do you see myself called "to rouse the weary"? How can you do that, especially in the face of all the challenges in our world today?
2. What or who sustains you in your own weary times?
3. Like the crowds in today's Palm Sunday narrative, what expectations have you placed on Jesus? How has He responded?
