Dear Friends,

Today is Mother's Day. With all the political rhetoric surrounding and engulfing any possible decision of the Supreme Court that has filled the airwaves recently, on this special day let's remember the special place a mother has in the hearts of her children. I offer this prayer for all our mothers and hope that your families have extended to you their deepest love, affection and appreciation for all you have done for them, especially as you helped your families through these two years of pandemic. In addition to this column, we will show a special tribute to mothers at the conclusion of all our masses.

God Our Creator, we pray:

For new mothers, coming to terms with new responsibility;

For expectant mothers, wondering and waiting;

For those who are tired, stressed or depressed;

For those struggling to balance the tasks of work and family;

For those unable to feed their children due to poverty;

For those whose children have physical, mental or emotional disabilities;

For those who have children they do not want;

For those who raise children on their own;

For those who have lost a child;

For those who care for the children of others;

For those whose children have left home;

And for those whose desire to be a mother has not been fulfilled.

Bless all mothers, that their love may be deep and tender, and that they may lead their children to know and do what is good, living not for themselves alone, but for God and for others.

Amen.

To all mentioned above and for whom we pray, blessings this Mother's Day. May you be filled with the same joy you bring to others and may the light of the Lord's love shine always in your hearts. Please take a flower as an acknowledgement of the place you hold in the heart of our one, big parish family.

As May is also the month of Mary, the Mother of the Lord and the Mother of all the faithful, I offer this prayer to her, authored by Pope Francis. It is a prayer that I recite every day. As in years past, we will honor Mary, the Blessed Mother, with the traditional crowning at the 9:30 Mass by some of our most recent 1st Communicants.

Mother, help our faith!

Open our ears to hear God's Word and to recognize his voice and call.

Awaken in us a desire to follow in his footsteps, to go forth from our own land and to receive his promise.

Help us to be touched by his love, that we may touch him in faith. Help us to entrust ourselves fully to him and to believe in his love, especially at times of trial, beneath the shadow of the cross, when our faith is called to mature. Sow in our faith the joy of the Risen One. Remind us that those who believe are never alone. Teach us to see all things with the eyes of Jesus that he may be light for our path and may this light of faith always increase in us, Until the dawn of that undying day which is Christ himself, your Son, our Lord!

Amen.

God Bless,
Fr. Ron

STEWARDSHIP

"All who were destined for eternal life came to believe and the word of the Lord continued to spread through the whole region." The reading from Acts reminds us that God's Word must be announced, through the mouths and lives of believers. The Christian Steward accepts the call to be that instrument, through gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure. In what ways are you an instrument of this announcement?

Thank you and God bless you for your continued support of the Gospel and the parish. Because we had only one "normal" week for the in-pew collection, we will continue for a few more weekends before we make a decision on that. Feel free to email me if you have any observations about our return to an actual in-pew collection.

News from ACADEMY OF OUR LADY

May the peace of our Risen Lord be yours!

Our Seventh and Eighth Grade students participated in the 2022 Shark Tank STEM Fair recently. Each STEM team presented their prototype designs.

The winners of the Fair were: Grade 7: Thomas, Robert and Jack who presented their design of "Controller Cooldown," which is an attachment to a video game controller that will keep hands cool. Grade 8: Massimo, Anne, and Molly who presented their design of "Grocery Grabber," a product which helps relieve muscle strain caused by carrying multiple shopping bags at once. Many thanks to our Shark Tank panelists: Fr. Ron, Fr. Frank, Fr. Dominick, Mrs. Glentz and Mrs. Deely.

The performances of Academy of Our Lady Spring Musical, Into the Woods Jr., was presented over the weekend. Students in Grades 5-8 are involved in the Musical. We are so happy to bring live theatre back to our school!

Please continue to keep the students and staff of Academy of Our Lady in your prayers.

1. Acts of the Apostles 13: 14, 43-52

Today's excerpt locates the two intrepid missionaries, Paul and Barnabas, in Antioch, in Asia Minor, the second stop on their first missionary journey. Their first preaching (mostly contained in the omitted verses) is successful and they are invited back the following week, when they encounter opposition because, in addition to the Jewish congregation, many gentiles also show up. Paul rebukes his Jewish hearers, insisting their ministry reflects God's plan, not theirs' and that nothing, and no one, will stand in its way.

2. Revelation 57: 9, 14-17

John's vision in this excerpt focuses on the Lamb, Jesus enthroned like the Father, thus identifying Him with and as God. He is identified as the glorious, Risen Jesus, in Whose Blood the sinner finds salvation. He is also identified as the Lamb Who is the Shepherd, leading the universal ("from every nation, race, people and tongue") community of the saved to the springs of life-giving water. Comforted by God, they will not be conquered by the persecutions (of the Emperor Domitian) of this time of great distress.

3. John 10: 27-30

The scene is the courtyard of the great Temple, during the festival commemorating its dedication (and rededication – Hanukkah). The Jews have asked Him, are you or are you not the Messiah. This is Jesus' reply. In this short reply we find three truths. (1) One must be open to hear his voice. (2) One must follow that voice. (3) The hearing and the following create an intimacy, relationship ("I know them") which leads to eternal life. To hear, know and follow Jesus is to hear, know and follow the Father. The intimacy with God, once achieved through the Temple is now achieved through Jesus. Thus, Jesus answers the question, but many will not hear His voice.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. Jesus says in this Gospel, "no one can take them (His followers) out of my hand." Do you really feel secure in Jesus' hands?
2. Jesus says in this Gospel, "My sheep hear My voice." Do you hear His voice? Do you even listen for it, believing that Jesus is trying to speak to you? When?
3. Paul was opposed by those who could not think of the message as directed to those not part of their group. Do you see God working in people you may disdain?
