Dear Friends,

Today the Church celebrates the Feast of Pentecost, the gift from the Father and the Son of their Spirit to the disciples, gathered again in a room, which officially makes them the Church. Since the Second Vatican Council, the emphasis has been on the Holy Spirit as the Divine presence that animates the Church. Of all the references to the Holy Spirit in the New Testament, more than half are to be found in the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles. The Acts of the Apostles is often referred to as the Gospel of the Holy Spirit. From the announcement of the birth of John the Baptist in Chapter 1 of Luke's Gospel, to Paul's final discourse to the community in Rome, in the last chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, the Holy Spirit is the guiding, teaching and empowering Divine Presence (1) in Jesus ("Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days,: Luke 4:1); (2) in the community (It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us," Acts 15:28) and (3) in individuals ("While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also," Acts 10:44-45). For Luke, the Holy Spirit is no abstract third person of the Trinity, but the life-force, poured forth from God, and filling every Christian person, and the Church, to witness to Jesus Christ, Lord and Savior.

Sometimes, at the very beginning of walking with and working with couples preparing for marriage, the question is asked whether Confirmation is required to "get married in the church." Without insulting anyone, this view of Confirmation (receiving the fullness of the Holy Spirit) is very narrow and out-of-focus. It sees it as law and discipline, not as gift and life; as something to be done, rather than the Presence of One Who directs and animates the doing; as something static, which can be recorded in a register, rather than active, filling, empowering, motivating, strengthening for day-to-day living as witness in what can be, at best, an apathetic world and, at worst, a hostile world in which the living of the Christian message is seen as retarding world progress.

It is the Holy Spirit Who awakens in every Christian that call to be that witness, and to discover the role Christ has called us to fulfill in the plan for His Church. I never tire of quoting the late Pope Benedict XVI when he addressed a Parish Pastoral Council of a church in the Diocese of Rome: "Every person carries within himself (herself), a project of God, a personal vocation, a personal idea of God, on what he (she) is required to do in history to build His Church, a living temple of His presence." It is the Holy Spirit Who makes us aware of this "project" and gives us the gifts to carry it out. Have you ever thought of what that "project of God" might be for you?

In the past, I have cited a prayer that Pope St. John XXIII prayed for a new Pentecost, a new outpouring of the Holy Spirit to enliven the Church once again so that it might truly give life to the world; for a new awakening in the Church and in every Christian, of the power that comes from the Spirit, a power to be the kind of believer that the men and women we meet in the Acts of the Apostles were. I present it again on this Pentecost Sunday and invite you to recite it every day, as this great Saint did. It is a prayer that I say every day, for decades now. More than ever, as this parish community awaits the appointment of a new shepherd, we need to ask the Holy Spirit to guide this community in this new chapter that is about to begin

Prayer of Pope Saint John XXIII to the Holy Spirit

“O Holy Spirit, Paraclete, perfect in each one of us, the work begun by Jesus: enable us to continue to pray fervently in the name of the whole world: hasten in every one of us the growth of a profound interior life; give vigor to our apostolate so that it may reach all men and all peoples, all redeemed by the Blood of Christ and all belonging to Him.

Mortify in us our natural pride, and raise us to the realms of holy humility, of real fear of God, of generous courage. Let no earthly bond prevent us from honoring our vocation, no cowardly considerations disturb the claims of justice, no meanness confine the immensity of charity within the narrow bounds of petty selfishness. Let everything in us be on a grand scale: the search for truth and the devotion to it, and readiness for self-sacrifice, even to the cross and death; and may everything finally be according to the last prayer of the Son to His heavenly father, and according to the pouring out of your Spirit,

O Holy Spirit of love, Whom the Father and the Son desired to be poured out over the Church and her institutions, over the souls of men and of nations. Come, Holy Spirit, come. Amen.

Come, Holy Spirit, Come
Fr. Ron

PS. This is the Memorial Day weekend. Amidst the celebrating (no matter the weather), take the time to remember the reason why. To Remember—to remember all those who gave their lives for this democracy to continue, from the first to fall in the Boston Massacre to the last over the skies of Iran. Remember and say a prayer and give thanks, especially as we approach our 250th anniversary.

STEWARDSHIP

“To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” These words of today’s 2nd Reading are both challenging and consoling, challenging because they call us to bring a “benefit” to the people of God and the Kingdom of God, consoling because they remind us we don’t have to count on our own strength, the Spirit will help us and support us. The Christian Steward understands this and offers his/her gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure to build the kingdom. What “benefit” do you offer to the Lord and His Church?

The parish Stewardship of Treasure last week was $13,466. God bless all who generously share their materials gifts for the spread of the Gospel and the growth of the Kingdom. Electronic Giving, We Share/Venmo, helps the parish better manage those gifts.

TODAY'S READINGS

The readings for the Vigil Mass (Saturday evening) may be different, depending on the choice of the presider.

1. Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11

Luke's account of the beginning of the Church's mission is filled with symbols and connections. Wind and fire are mysterious forces, coming and going only by God's design. The wind, especially, recalls the powerful wind of Genesis, sweeping over the waters of creation. The fifty days of Pentecost (Greek for fifty) recalls the fifty days of the Hebrews' experience from the Exodus until the giving of the Law on Sinai. For this new people, created by God's work, the presence of the Spirit enlightens and enlivens it to serve and to witness to all that God did, in and through Jesus, the Christ, breaking down all boundaries and resistance.

2. 1 Corinthians 12:3-7, 12-13

Attend the Spirit so as to do and be and speak and serve and pray in accord with the Spirit's wise bidding. The Spirit comes as a gift of the Father and the Son and enables the believer to confess faith and put it into action, for the Spirit is the giver of all gifts that build up the Body of Christ, and the source of the unity that brings all these gifts together for the good of that Body.

3. John 20:19-23

Appearing to a troubled, doubtful and fearful group of followers, Jesus breathes on them a Spirit of peace that prompts a ministry of forgiveness and healing. A death that should have been avenged (in the normal way of thinking) is now to be celebrated by the power of the Spirit Who would give them the strength and courage to do so. Just as Jesus has been sent, so now He sends them, and not just them, but all believers. There is no longer a reason to be frightened or doubtful. The risen Jesus and His Spirit will go with them.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. When have you most deeply felt the power of the Holy Spirit in your life?
2. What are the particular gifts, forms of service, abilities you have received and do you offer them to the Church?
3. In what ways are you sent? How do you witness to your faith? Have you been a source of faith-filled hope these last years, with all the difficulties we see in the world?
