Dear Friends,

To all our parish fathers, for who you are in the lives of our parish families, and for all you do, a HAPPY FATHER'S DAY. A father's influence is often measured not in grand gestures, but in the quiet, steady moments that shape a life. It is the early mornings, the patient guidance, the sacrifices made without recognition, and the unwavering presence through both triumphs and challenges.

Today is a reminder to pause and appreciate the men who have offered strength when it was needed, wisdom when it was sought and love even when words were few. Whether through example, encouragement, or simply being there, fathers leave footprints on our hearts that remain long after the moment has passed. On this Father's Day, may we celebrate not only what fathers do, but who they are—sources of support, resilience and care, as is the Father Jesus reveals to us in the Gospels. To that Father, I invite all our fathers to turn for continued grace, love and support. Please accept, as usual, these pens, both gift and challenge—Catholic Fathers Model Their Faith.

A FATHER'S PRAYER

Dear Father in Heaven,

As a father, help me to follow Your example to be patient to be caring to be understanding to be forgiving
to be firm
to be compassionate to be a teacher to be loving to be a good listener and most importantly,
to be there as a parent
as You are always there for me.

Amen

Doherty

Grace and Peace,
Fr. Ron

STEWARDSHIP

“So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.” Jesus reassures us of the constant love and concern of the Father. In so doing, He reminds us of the giftedness that is ours, simply because God has created us, and continues to watch over us. Are you grateful for life and for His love? How do you show it? The Christian Steward offers back to God the gifts he/she has been given, especially his/her gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure. What do you offer?

The parish Stewardship of Treasure last week was $15,472. Thanks to all who so generously support the work of the Gospel in and through the work of the parish. Electronic giving, WeShare/Venmo, really helps the parish fulfill the call to announce God’s love and care for the world.

A recurring online gift To Our Lady of Mt. Carmel is the best way to sustain the mission of this parish all year long.

Look for the WeShare link on our website homepage, Scan this QR Code, or call 877.316.0260

You can support OLMC via Venmo!

Find us under “Charities” @olmcridgewoodnj or scan the QR code here.

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION (PEA)

CHAPEL IS OPEN 24/7 EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

At the Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Chapel, we meet Jesus, who is truly the God of love, mercy, and Divine Providence.

Like all families, we have had our share of trials and tribulations. Yet through the years of being involved in Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration, Jesus not only saved our lives, He made it beautiful! My husband, my son and I have experienced many instances of a “taste of heaven on earth” such as experiencing God’s love, real happiness, peace and providence when the 3 of us are together simply at home or in our travels, at work and at our service in the ministry.

Spending time with Jesus as an Adorer and serving Him as a Coordinator has brought countless blessings into our lives. We have become more productive and more aware of God’s loving presence in our daily lives. We have also been blessed in our work and business endeavors and have met many wonderful people along the way. These blessings are not in the absence of difficulties, but reminders of God’s love, mercy, and providence. With all these we still have time to go to the gym.

There is still time to sign up for PEA . Our goal is to have 2 Scheduled Adorers every hour. We are also in need of Hour Coordinators. Many hands help keep light work. There are 24 hours in a day. Pick your hour. It is a blessing to serve as an Hour Coordinator. The more we give of our time, talent, and treasure, the more we receive.

1. Jeremiah 20:10-13

This passage comes on the heels of an account in which Jeremiah is scourged and placed in the stocks at the order of the priest Pashur. This experience is the occasion for the inner dialogue represented in this excerpt. Feeling betrayed by those he thought were friends, Jeremiah makes his case before God in the style of a lament. Holding nothing back, he complains about the untenable situation he finds himself in. And yet, the complaint is matched by an expression of his ultimate trust in God. Candid about this inner struggle, the prophet remains God's loyal servant.

2. Romans 5:12-15

The author looks around him and sees Adam's sin as just the beginning of a whole history of sin. The violence, the inhumanity, the injustice have a stranglehold on the world; all the result of Adam's sin, ultimately leading to his death and to the death of all human beings. And to the spiritual death which is estrangement from God. But Paul will not let the reader wallow in this horror for Jesus Christ, the gracious gift of God is the antitype of Adam, bringing life and salvation to the world. Through His saving death and resurrection, Jesus has provided access to God and graced us with a strength that can lift us above every evil.

3. Matthew 10:26-33

In the example of the sparrows, in conjunction with the three commands against fear, Jesus reassures the believer of the attentive love and caring of God. The reassurance specifically targets any fear the believer may have in both living in the light and proclaiming the good news "from the housetops." Three reasons are offered for this reassurance: (1) imminent judgment will reveal all truth, (2) even in the face of bodily harm, no one can destroy the inner person, (3) valued by God, God will care for Jesus' followers. Those who accept Jesus as Son of God will be strengthened in fidelity and will be rewarded for it.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. What are some of the fears you deal with in your life? What would it be like to live without "fear"?
2. Do you really believe that God knows you in such an intimate way as to count every hair on your head? If so, what does that have to say to you about the fears you just identified?
3. Do you think of yourself as a courageous disciple of Christ? How does that discipleship express itself?
