CLASSROOM MENTORS/FACILITATORS Needed for our Junior High Faith Formation Program

We are searching for high school students who are looking to serve!

We are seeking enthusiastic and responsible high school volunteers to serve as classroom mentors and facilitators in our 7th and 8th grade Faith Formation program—which runs from September-May.

Volunteers will support the faith journey of middle school students by assisting in (8) classroom sessions through facilitating activities, leading small group discussions, and fostering a welcoming, faith-filled environment. This is a wonderful opportunity to earn service hours while growing in your own faith.

Facilitators will:

- Guide discussions and foster community
- Encourage others on their faith journey
- Receive training and support from our Faith Formation team
- No teaching experience required—just a love for Christ and a willingness to serve.

Tuesday: 3:45-5:00 PM

Wednesday: 3:45-5:00 PM

Sunday: 5:00-6:15 PM

STEWARDSHIP

“The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field” when we come to church, we like to think of ourselves as that good seed. But to really be “good seed,” we must produce fruit, not just “be good.” What fruit do you produce?” The Christian Steward uses his/her Time, Talent and Treasure to produce fruit for the kingdom. Do you generously use your gifts to do the same?

The parish Stewardship of Treasure last week was $10,951. Thank you for your generosity in producing fruit for the growth of the Kingdom. Using on-line giving We Share/Venmo, helps the parish produce that fruit. Thank You.

A recurring online gift To Our Lady of Mt. Carmel is the best way to sustain the mission of this parish all year long.

Look for the WeShare link on our website homepage, Scan this QR Code, or call 877.316.0260

You can support OLMC via Venmo!

Find us under “Charities” @olmcridgewoodnj or scan the QR code here.

A NOTICE FROM THE OFFERTORY ENVELOPE COMPANY

There was a delay in production for the July offertory envelopes. Rather than receiving July envelopes late, we believe this is an opportunity to reset our schedule by skipping July envelopes and resume regular mailings with your August envelope packets.

Most parishioners should still have a supply of unused envelopes available from previous mailings. We would ask that parishioners use these envelopes during the month of July and write the appropriate July date on the envelope when making their offertory gift.

Now might be the time...

With the above mentioned production issues and summer travel schedules, now might be the time to switch to online support for the parish. Follow the WeShare link on the homepage of our website.

FR. ENGLISH FROZEN CASSEROLE MINISTRY SUMMER HIATUS NOTICE

Why Do We Have Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration at OLMC?

Our Lady of Mount Carmel offers our parishioners this time of prayerful silence:

- ◊ To worship Jesus truly present in the Most Holy Eucharist.
- ◊ To deepen our relationship with Him through quiet prayer and listening.
- ◊ To give thanks for God's countless blessings.
- ◊ To seek His mercy for ourselves, our families, and the whole world.
- ◊ To pray for our parish, our priests, and an increase in vocations.
- ◊ To intercede for those in need—the sick, the suffering, and those who have no one to pray for them.
- ◊ To grow in holiness, allowing Jesus to transform our hearts.
- ◊ To make reparation for sins committed against God.
- ◊ To become more like Christ, growing in faith, hope, charity, humility, and patience.
- ◊ To experience a foretaste of heaven, where we will worship God forever and enjoy His presence.
- ◊ To respond to His Invitation: "Could you not keep watch with Me for one hour?" (Matthew 26:40)

PEA transforms our lives. It brings abundant blessings. Come and join us. Sign up to spend a quiet hour once a week to adore Jesus and to help keep the door open to anyone seeking peace, to anyone seeking God.

Our goal is to have two Scheduled Adorers each hour and to have a Coordinator for each hour.

Spending time with or for Jesus, either as a Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Adorer or as a Coordinator is one of the greatest investments we can make. Every hour spent in His Presence is never lost. God can never be outdone in generosity. He returns every hour we give Him with countless graces, blessing our work, our families, our ministry, and our relationships.

TODAY'S READINGS

1. Wisdom 12:13, 16-19

Written very late (perhaps the 1st century before Christ), and probably in Egypt and in Greek, this book is an exemplary representative of both religious devotion and learning. Both steer the reader to the path of life. Part of a longer section in which the author recapitulates the major events of Israel's history, today's excerpted text, the author digresses to draw attention to the merciful and lenient patience of God Who extends to one and all (including the pagans) every opportunity for repentance, treating everyone with great and loving clemency.

2. Romans 8:26-27

Left to ourselves, our selfishness (the flesh) is the hindrance which prevents us from knowing what to pray for, our prayer becoming more about ourselves than about God. But we are rescued by the Spirit, present in our weakness, Who prays in us. The Father searches deep within us and hears the Spirit's groanings and in a graced-filled way, the Spirit's prayer becomes our own.

3. Matthew 13:24-43

The Matthean Jesus continues teaching in parables, all of which serve to enlighten the hearer/ reader about the reality of the presence of the kingdom of heaven. The parable of the weeds and the wheat invite patience and tolerance because it is yet unclear how the wheat will be distinguished from the weeds. Only the Master will render judgment. The mustard seed is both small and ordinary, not what we would envision for God's kingdom, which, nonetheless, grows according to its own dynamics (the parable of the yeast). Many scholars would propose that the explanation of the weeds and wheat, offered at the end of this excerpted passage, is a redaction (added later) by Matthew to strengthen his local church in the face of the struggles it was enduring. It is therefore an encouragement that righteousness will win out in the end.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. How do you handle the "weeds" in your life?
2. Where in your spiritual life do you see signs of growth and life?
3. In your life do you believe and witness that God gives good ground for hope, even in these days when the "headlines" scream something different? Where have you seen such hope?
