STEWARDSHIP

“And the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong? Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.” We hold on to so many things, material possessions, relationships, prestige and power. None of these will survive our passing. What will—our love for God and the love we have shown to one another. And THIS IS the Kingdom of God. The Christian Steward builds this kingdom with gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure. Do you know what matters to God? And do what you can to build it?

The parish Stewardship of Treasure in the in-pew collection last week was $9,252 God bless your generous support for “what matters to God. Electronic Giving helps the parish budget and monitor its resources. Please give it some consideration.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS

1. Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2: 21-23

Regarded as part of Wisdom Literature, this book, ascribed to Solomon, studies the relationship between God and humankind, not in terms of the covenant or “salvation history,” but strictly from an earthly viewpoint. The author tests everything, pleasure riches, toil, even wisdom, and finds them all lacking. Preoccupation with these things leads only to the illusion of satisfaction. The conclusion—gratitude to God for whatever blessings He chooses to send, for God is not limited or coerced by human considerations.

2. Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

In these beginning lines of chapter 3, the contrast is to be understood in terms of the religious practices of the past (food and drink, festivals of the new moon or Sabbath—cited in the previous verses) and Christ’s victorious presence, a lordship earned through His complete victory over sin and death. Through baptism, the Christian embraces a new life in Christ, a life marked by a continuous, interior renewal, a life and renewal in which all previous barriers are broken down.

3. Luke 12: 13-21

Having been asked to arbitrate a family dispute (a not uncommon experience for one regarded as possessing an unusual degree of wisdom), Jesus uses the occasion to pronounce a deeper truth—the real meaning of one’s life cannot be determined or secured by one’s possessions. The farmer is not described as unjust or evil; he merely subscribes to an erroneous attitude—bigger is better. In his planning, he has paid no attention to God or what God might be asking of him.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. Despite all your knowledge, skill, work, worry, effort, riches and success, have you ever felt empty?
2. What are your “barns,” where you store what is most valuable to you?
3. How do you “seek what is above”? Put on a new self? Find renewal in God?
