STEWARDSHIP

“For where your treasure is, there your heart will be.”
“You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect...” In these two quotes from today’s Gospel, we have a warning from the Lord. God cannot be fooled; if our treasure is the things of this world (homes, cars, investment accounts), the Lord sees our miniscule support of the Gospel (in terms of our Time, Talent and Treasure). The second question is even more urgent; am I waiting for the “right” time to support the Gospel with my Time, Talent and Treasure?
Beware—it might be too late. Do it Now!

The parish Stewardship of Treasure for the in-pew collection last week was $30,309. God bless all for your support of the Gospel. The parish Stewardship of Treasure for the 5 Sundays of July was $115,275. It was received as follows:

We Share/Online Giving $38,619
In Pew/Mailed to the Rectory $76,656

As a point of comparison, total church support for the 4
Sundays of July, 2021, was $85,624. For the four Sundays of July, 2020 it was $84,083 and for the four Sundays of July, 2019, pre-pandemic, it was $97,173.
Please consider electronic giving as a way to help the parish meet our program needs.

TODAY'S READINGS

1. Wisdom 18:6-9

True wisdom comes from giving priority to a right relationship with God. People who gain such wisdom enjoy advantages in life not available to those who do not. Examples of this from the exodus account are drawn by the author in chapters 11 thru 19, from which today's excerpt comes, relating the story of the final plague in Egypt. Believing in God's promise as descendants of Abraham, they received "glory" on the night of the Passover while their adversaries (the Egyptians) were punished for their resistance to God's word.

2. Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19

Faith is not just a series of truths but a trust in the fidelity of the Lord to his promises. Chapter 11 of Hebrews mentions many faith-heroes, the most prominent of which is Abraham. Abraham believed God would fulfill His word and so the author of Hebrews cites this authenticity of Abraham's faith and recommends his example to the reader for emulation. Abraham not only had faith in his heart, he outwardly reflected this faith in actions that cooperated with God's word, even to the point of sacrificing his son, Isaac.

3. Luke 12:32-48

The first part of this passage serves as a transition from last week's Gospel about the foolishness of the man who centers his life on the material, and the anxiety that comes with it, to the theme of watchfulness. Since the end times could not be predicted, the good servant is one who is always watchful and thus prepared for the master's coming, whenever that might be. When this happens, the master will reverse roles, waiting on the servant who had been waiting on him. This watchfulness and fidelity most especially should be found in church leaders to whom much as been entrusted.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. Are you waiting for the Lord to come to you?
2. How would my life be different if I didn't have faith in God?
3. How would my life be different if I had a greater or even absolute faith in God?
