CLASSROOM MENTORS/FACILITATORS

Needed for our Junior High Faith Formation Program

We still need a few enthusiastic & responsible high school volunteers to assist with our 7th Grade Wednesday class—3:45PM-5:00PM.

Volunteers will support the faith journey of middle school students by assisting with eight (8) classroom sessions (September-May) through facilitating activities, leading small group discussions, and fostering a welcoming, faith-filled environment.

This is a wonderful opportunity to earn service hours while growing in your own faith.

Facilitators will:

- Guide discussions and foster community
- Encourage others on their faith journey
- Receive training and support from our Faith Formation team
- No teaching experience required—just a love for Christ and a willingness to serve.

STEWARDSHIP

“For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable.” In today’s 2nd Reading, Paul recognizes that God calls each believer to faith and mission and that He endows each one called with the gifts to carry out that call. The Christian Steward understands both the call and the mission and uses his/her gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure to answer that call. Do you?

The parish Stewardship of Treasure last week was $10,452. God bless your generous support of the Gospel message and the parish’s work to make it alive in this community. Online giving, WeShare/Venmo, helps the parish carry on that mission.

A recurring online gift To Our Lady of Mt. Carmel is the best way to sustain the mission of this parish all year long.

Look for the WeShare link on our website homepage, Scan this QR Code, or call 877.316.0260

You can support OLMC via Venmo!

Find us under “Charities” @olmcridgewoodnj or scan the QR code here.

Annual Mission Appeal—August 29 & 30

Each year, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel welcomes a missionary to speak with us on behalf of their mission. This year, we will welcome a missionary from Liberia Mission USA on August 29 & 30.

The St. Paul College Seminary in Liberia, West Africa was founded in 1974 for the formation of young men to the Holy Catholic priesthood. Many priests and bishops are products of St. Paul College Seminary.

The seminary suffered a great set back due to many years of civil war in Liberia. Its infrastructures were either destroyed, burned down, or vandalized. Thank God the war is over, and the seminary continues to be used as a place of formation where young people aspiring to be priests are trained. The seminary needs a lot of help in terms of support for the reconstruction and renovation of its infrastructure.

We will learn more about their needs in a couple of weeks.

Love to sing?
The Adult Choir is Welcoming

Rehearsals begin on Tuesday, September 15th. We practice Tuesdays at 7:30PM in the church. All skill levels are welcome. The choir sings at the 11:00AM Mass on Sundays as well as special liturgies throughout the year. Please speak to me after any Mass or email me with any questions at mtcarmelmusic58@aol.com ~ Peter Sicko.

Faith or Fear

Faith focuses on Jesus.

Fear focuses on our problems.

Like Peter, we can walk upon the stormy waters of life when our eyes are fixed on Jesus. But once we focus on the waves—our worries, fears, and problems—we begin to sink.

Come to Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration. Spending time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament strengthens our faith in Him. With faith, we can walk through the storms of life with peace, love and inner joy because Jesus Christ is with us.

“Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid.” Matthew 14:27

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS

1. Isaiah 56:1, 6-7

As a sign of Israel's change of heart and readiness to listen to God's word, a new spirit of the observance of the Sabbath reflects the proper point of view on life. It humbles the exaggerated notion that all of value was of man's making and reestablishes God's sovereignty over the world He created. So important is this recognition that the prophet looks to a time when all the nations, not just Israel, will acknowledge this sovereignty in worship in the great Temple.

2. Romans 11:13-15, 29-32

Paul recognizes that Israel's privileges are irrevocable. God will not abandon His people. But in the meantime, Israel's rejection of Jesus has turned to the advantage of the gentiles. They now have come to experience God's mercy in believing in Jesus. Eventually, Paul believes, his fellow Jews will come to recognize God's hand in saving the gentiles.

3. Matthew 15:21-28

The dynamic of this story of the Canaanite woman (a pagan) unfolds around the dialogue she had with Jesus at her instigation. Though a pagan, she acknowledges him as "Lord, Son of David," a messianic title. Somehow, she knows and believes. At first, Jesus rejects her, reaffirming his exclusive commitment to the Jews, even to the point of a derogatory dismissal of her need. But because of her persistence, her faith triumphs and is rewarded with the cure she seeks. In this dialogue, Matthew teaches his community (of predominantly Jewish Christians) that the power of faith transcends every divide.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. As Isaiah exhorts, when have you had to make a difficult choice in order to do what was right?
2. When have you most needed, and felt, God's mercy at work in your life?
3. Society/culture these days talks a lot about insiders/outside. Have you ever felt like either? Explain.
