*Our Lady of Mount Carmel Welcomes
Giana Castelli*

Hello everyone! My name is Giana Castelli, and I am so excited to be joining as the ECHO Parish Apprentice and new Director of Junior High Youth Ministry. I have received such a warm welcome here, and I am very blessed to be serving at Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

I was raised in Paramus, New Jersey, and got my Bachelor's in English and Political Science at Rutgers University. I taught catechism in the Bronx for a year, and now I am currently studying to earn my masters in theology through the University of Notre Dame's ECHO program. ECHO forms lay leaders in service of the church through earning a masters in theology while serving in a parish or school in one of the ECHO partner dioceses located throughout the United States.

Please keep me and the Junior High students in your prayers as we begin the new school year. Pray for me, especially, that the Holy Spirit may guide me to bringing these children closer to Christ!

Do you have a rising 7th or 8th Grade Student?
Jr. High Registration is Now Open

Register now for our Jr. High Religious Education Program. Emails were sent to families who had been registered in Religious Education this past year. If you have a rising 7th or 8th grade student, and did not receive an email, contact Giana Castelli at:

gcastelli@olmcridgewood.com or call 201.444.9302

STEWARDSHIP

"When you hold a lunch or dinner, do not invite your friends ...in case they may invite you back and you have repayment." To give, freely and purely, without thought of repayment, is to mirror the generosity of God, Who gives bountifully to all. The Christian Steward recognizes God's bountiful love and, in thanksgiving, shares his/her gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure. Do you?

The parish Stewardship of Treasure in the in-pew collection last week was $8,730. God bless your generosity in thanksgiving for God's blessings in your life. If you don't already, give some thought to using electronic giving as your way to support the work of the Gospel and the parish.

A Recurring Online Gift to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel is the best way to sustain the mission of this parish all year long.

Look for the WeShare link on our homepage or call 877.316.0260

CONFIRMATION PROGRAM REGISTER NOW FOR 2022-2023

ATTENTION TEENS IN THE CLASSES OF 2023, 2024 & 2025

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS

1. Sirach 3:17-18, 28-29

Omitted from the Palestinian (Jewish) canon, this book probably had its origin in the 2nd Century BC. Translated by the author's grandson, the book equates wisdom with knowing and being content with one's place before God and it values the Mosaic tradition as the source of true wisdom. In this excerpt, the reader is reminded that every person enjoys life as gift from God and that humble service to God and others is the only proper response. A selfless nature allows a person to listen more attentively to the wisdom of others and to see more clearly the needs of others.

2. Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24

Through the first covenant (the Law, given on Sinai), believers learned to fear and reverence God through signs of fire, storm, darkness, trumpet blast and unbearable voice. Through the second covenant (Jesus Christ), the believer is given bold and confident access to God through that same Christ, access marked by a joyous and glorious celebration, involving angels, saints, God and Jesus. The believer needs to live in awe, somewhere between undue fear and undue familiarity.

3. Luke 14:1, 7-14

Luke's Gospel is often called the Gospel of the great reversal, evident in today's excerpt. Defying the familiar code of honor and shame that guided almost everything in public and private, Jesus reverses the concept of where honor lies. Seeking seats of honor was, itself, not honorable. The disciple lives humility in his/her life. The second principle is delivered in the last section of the parable. The disciple does good deeds without care or concern for reward, repayment or recognition.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. To whom do I relate more: the guest who hurried to the higher place or the one who took the last?
2. An authentic understanding of true humility is to be well-grounded. Does that make the virtue more appealing and easier to embrace?
3. Where do I fall on that scale of "undue fear" and "undue familiarity" with God? Is it a good place to be?
