Weekly Scripture Reflection Thursday Mornings Parish Center—10:30AM-11:45AM

For more than a year, a group of parishioners have met weekly to read, study, and share the meaning of the texts so as to prepare for the upcoming Scripture at weekend liturgy. Many have commented that it has deepened their faith and made a difference in their life.

"Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ." ...St Jerome

It is not necessary that you attend every Thursday but, if interested, please contact Linda English so that materials may be available for you.

Pilgrim Statue—Our Lady of the Cape

Visits Our Parish

Monday, October 28—7:00PM

We are excited to welcome the pilgrim statue of Our Lady of the Cape to our parish on Monday, October 28. The statue is originally from the National Shrine of Our Lady of the Cape in Quebec—Canada's National Shrine to the Blessed Mother. This special visit offers a wonderful opportunity to honor the Blessed Mother as we conclude the month of the Holy Rosary.

Join us for a heartfelt liturgy beginning at 7PM in the church. Together, we will pray the rosary, sing uplifting Marian hymns, offer prayer intentions, and listen to an inspiring talk by Fr. Wedner Berard from the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. We will also participate in a candlelight procession.

Candles will be available for purchase for $3 on the day of Mary's visit, with proceeds supporting the Shrine of Our Lady of the Cape. Additionally, free-will donations are always welcome to help spread devotion to Our Blessed Mother.

Please mark your calendar. We look forward to coming together in prayer and celebration!

STEWARDSHIP

“For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” Jesus came on earth to serve. Anyone who wishes to follow Him must also be willing to serve. One way is to give of one’s Time, Talent and Treasure, to serve God’s people, just as Jesus gave His very life for us. True disciples are true Stewards, giving service and sacrifice as Jesus taught us to do. As we begin Stewardship Renewal, ask yourself what service you give?

The parish Stewardship of Treasure last week was $13,587. God bless all whose generous support of the parish helps make the Gospel alive in our world. Please consider electronic giving as the best way to sustain and enhance the presence of the Gospel, and the Lord, Himself, in that world.

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION (PEA)

CHAPEL IS OPEN 24/7
EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

Come to the Holy Hour for Life
Friday, October 25th—7:30PM-8:30PM

All Adorers (Scheduled, Substitutes and Visitors) of the Blessed Sacrament, all parishioners and members of all ministries are encouraged to participate in OLMC's HOLY HOUR FOR LIFE this coming Friday, October 25, 7:30-8:30PM. A Holy Hour is so powerful most especially as we are gathered together to praise and thank God for creating us. We pray for one another, especially for those who cannot pray for themselves—the sick, the unborn, the elderly, those who struggle with life itself. To be fruitful, we have to prepare ourselves for this Holy Hour. We have to go to Mass and go to confession. God loves a clean and contrite heart. Let us bring as many people as we can, most especially our family and friends. The more people adoring Jesus, the more the gates of heaven will open. More blessings will come. The impossible becomes possible all for the glory of God and the good of all souls. Amen!

Everyone is invited to participate in Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration. Stop by the chapel or better yet sign up for an hour that is good for you. Or sign up as a substitute for the morning, afternoon, evening or midnight hours.

TODAY'S READINGS

1. Isaiah 53:10-11

An excerpt from the fourth servant song, these verses contributed to the early Church's understanding of Jesus' redemptive suffering. And His promised vindication. Aided by the inspired insights of this Old Testament prophet, it was able to represent Jesus, not as a hapless victim of circumstances but as a willing participant in the saving plan of God. Jesus, the Suffering Servant of Isaiah, did not submit to affliction through pathetic resignation but as a bold choice to participate with God in breaking the stranglehold of evil. Through his being crushed, the servant has won the victory.

2. Hebrews 4:14-16

Jesus is Son of God and therefore can accomplish great things for us. He is also fully human and knows what it is to be tested. Therefore, we can confidently approach God for mercy and grace because Jesus has full knowledge of who we are, how we think, what we desire and how weak we can be. He is the perfect high priest, through whom and with whom we will be heard.

3. Mark 10:35-45

This excerpt is the disciples' response (seen through James and John) to Jesus' third prediction of His passion. In each case the disciples manifest a basic misunderstanding of Jesus' Messiahship. He continues to talk about suffering, death and service, while they continue to focus on power, fame and glory. Unwittingly answering yes to Jesus' question about their own suffering, Jesus promises that, indeed, they will. James and John, by their asking, and the other ten, by their jealousy, show they have still missed the point about Jesus' ultimate service, a point that is still missed by many today.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. Do you believe that suffering can be redemptive? Can you transform your pain into something that will last beyond the moment? Beyond yourself?
2. How do you balance Jesus' words and your pursuit of success?
3. Do you measure others and yourself in terms of perks and power? By the service given to others? By something else?
