STEWARDSHIP

“They will seize you and persecute you.... It will lead to your giving testimony.” These words of Jesus in the Gospel remind us that although we may not live in a time when we are seized and persecuted, we are still called to give testimony, testimony of our faith in Jesus Christ. The Christian Steward gives that testimony through his/her gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure. How do you give yours?

The parish Stewardship of Treasure last week was $15,269. God bless your generous “testimony” for the Gospel. Help the parish better “give testimony” by using electronic giving, WeShare/Venmo.

A recurring online gift To Our Lady of Mt. Carmel is the best way to sustain the mission of this parish all year long...

Look for the WeShare link on our website homepage, Scan this QR Code, or call 877.316.0260

You can support OLMC via Venmo!

Find us under “Charities” @olmcridgewoodnj or scan the QR code here.

ADVENT EVENING OF REFLECTION MONDAY, DECEMBER 1, 2025—7:30PM-8:30PM

Join Us in the Church
Open to all!

Guest Speaker: Sarah Shutrop

Feeling the rush of the holiday season before it's even begun? Join us for an Advent Night of Reflection inspired by Hallow's “Pray25: Be Still challenge,” led by Sarah Shutrop, one of the lead content writers at Hallow. A storyteller, author, and mom of two, Sarah helps craft the reflections and challenges that guide millions to grow in prayer through Hallow's app. Together, we'll pause the noise of the season to enter the Christmas story for ourselves, rest in God's presence, reflecting on what it truly means to be still as we let Him speak to our hearts as we prepare for the coming of Christ.

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR PARISHIONERS SERVING IN THE MILITARY:

Sharing Tree 2025

Gift Cards Only Please

As in the past, we are supporting organizations providing services to homeless women and children, nursing homes, survivors of human trafficking, an inner city parish as well as families and individuals within our own community.

The needs continue to be great so whatever help you can provide is greatly appreciated. Gift Cards, in any amount, for VISA, Amazon, Target, Shop Rite, and Walmart are needed.

Some organizations have requested gift cards be in $25 increments. This provides greater flexibility in distributing to those in need. Whatever the amount, please clearly identify the value of the card (including the receipt is best). This is especially important for Amazon gift cards! Whatever generosity you can offer is greatly appreciated.

If you need assistance, or you know of someone in need, please contact Anne Denyeau. All requests are held in the strictest confidence.

Please place Gift Card(s) in an envelope labeled “Sharing Tree” and drop-off at the Rectory office no later than Monday, December 15th. The mail slot may be used after hours.

DO NOT LEAVE GIFT CARDS IN THE CHURCH

CHAPEL IS OPEN 24/7

Hands Raised in Prayer

In Exodus 17:8-13, Moses lifted his hands to God and Israel triumphed. When he grew weary, Aaron and Hur supported him until the victory was won.

So too, in Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration, our hearts and hands are raised to God, day and night. We lift up the Church, our families, and the world in prayer.

Come, spend an hour with Jesus. Be part of this continuous prayer of love that conquers evil and brings peace.

Everyone is invited to participate in Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration. Stop by the chapel any time or, better yet, sign up for one Holy Hour that is good for you. Not sure of your schedule? Sign up as a Substitute Adorer.

1. Malachi 3:19-20

This prophet (whose name means "my messenger") ministered after the exile. Though engaged (at least outwardly) in the holy effort to rebuild the temple destroyed by the Babylonians, these people were inwardly far from God, complaining that there was little to gain from serving Him. Malachi announces that they are wrong and he warns the proud and the wicked that a judgment awaits them. For them, a blazing fire awaits, consuming even the roots. But for the just, it will be like the dawn of a new day, when the sun shall rise and shine on them with its healing warmth.

2. 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

In today's excerpted reading, the author issues some very practical guidelines for living. Don't burden the community with your piety. You may be "waiting for the Lord" but in the meantime you need to continue daily living, go to work, earn your keep, mind your business. And the number one example of all of this is the author himself. Paul points to his own lifestyle as the example to be followed in waiting for the Lord's return. Waiting for the Lord cannot be an excuse for shirking one's responsibilities.

3. Luke 21:5-19

The subject matter of this passage is the destruction of the Jerusalem Temple. It was commonly believed that that event would mark the beginning of the end, and the return of Jesus in glory. Writing after this destruction, Luke realizes that the end may not come as soon as expected and prepares the community for the struggles that lie ahead. The catastrophes and tragedies of human life, wars, persecutions, natural disasters, will continue and these events call for bold witness on the part of each Christian, a witness Jesus promises that will depend not on an individual's strength but on the strength of the Lord, Himself.

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

1. What does the reading from 2 Thessalonians have to say about complacency in living one's faith?
2. Jesus speaks about endurance and perseverance. Daily, news of violence, hatred, suffering, war and discord are evident in our society. Where is God in these moments for you?
3. In a hostile environment, have you ever given testimony on behalf of Jesus?
